Hello Adil,

I hope you are well. Since we met at the last Robot and Vision Show in Chicago Braintech has undergone a transition to new management. I mentioned to Rick Weldinger how you'd expressed interest in discussing potential cooperation in our meeting at the show and he suggested that we schedule a conference to discuss this. Rick happens to be in town tomorrow and we were wondering if we could catch you for a few minutes tomorrow say at 11:00 PST 2:00PM EST. Let me know if this works for you.

Best Regards,

Hello Babak,

It was great talking with you and Rick too. I have given some thought to our partnership possibilities and would like to discuss them as soon as the NDA is completed. I skimmed through it quickly. There are one or two things that came to mind that I should write about; they are simple. I have run into three large orders this week and they have caused my schedule to get very compressed with phone calls, meetings, etc. At best I'll be able to continue on Friday afternoon but to be safe let's pick this up on Monday next week. I look forward to more discussions and strong synergies between us.

Best regards,

Adil

Hello Adil,

It was great talking to you today and I certainly feel there are opportunities to work together. Attached is the standard Braintech mutual NDA for your review. Speaking to Rick he mentioned that he plans to be in DC on the following dates if you decide to visit with him before meeting in Vancouver.
